A UNIQUE SETTING FOR A UNIQUE RALLY

The First of its Kind!

October 12-13th

2018

Each year a number of motorcycle rallies take place around various locations around the USA. They vary in size of the crowds, in number of days, in the types of events offered but now a newcomer to the rally scene has emerged taking place in a location like no other. This October, the first ever Vette City Motorcycle Music Fest will take place at the world famous national corvette museum in centrally located Bowling Green Kentucky.

For the first time in the museum's history, the doors to this 115,000 sq. ft. facility will be closed to the public and open only to rally goers offering unlimited tours of the museum over the two-day rally period. The museum showcases over 80 Corvettes, concept cars, thousands of photos, movies and videos, rare memorabilia, as well as history explaining how this car has become such an American Icon.

A Kickoff Party is FREE to everyone Thursday night, October 11th at Harley-Davidson Bowling Green. The event includes 4-bands: Kiss Kiss Bang, The Hootz, Jasmine Cain, Josephines. Food vendors will also be on site

Spotlight on the Bowling Green, Kentucky Area Motorcycle Roads

is situated in southwestern portion of Kentucky placing riders in the heart of some great Kentucky motorcycle roads that are especially beautiful in October's autumn season scenery. Additionally, motorcycle riders will only be about 30 miles north of Tennessee and about 70 miles south of Indiana so the great motorcycle roads in those states are easily accessible too! In fact, below we've selected and showcased a handful of the most popular motorcycle roads near the Vette City Motorcycle Music Festival.

Trace Thru the Land Between the Lakes

In Yellow Above
